NORTHWEST INDIANA LAWMAKERS APPOINTED TO SUMMER STUDY COMMITTEES

INDIANAPOLIS – Lawmakers from Northwest Indiana have been selected to serve on a series of interim study committees for the Indiana General Assembly, according to an announcement today by Indiana House Democrat Leader B. Patrick Bauer (D-South Bend).

"These study committees do much of the background work on the subjects that will form the backbone of the 2007 session of the Legislature," Bauer noted. "In making these selections, I want to take full advantage of the diverse areas of expertise that these fine people bring to the General Assembly. I believe they will use these appointments to advance proposals that will benefit many people across Indiana."

STATE REP. JOHN AGUILERA (D-EAST CHICAGO) will serve on the Commission on Hispanic and Latino Affairs.

STATE REP. CHARLIE BROWN (D-GARY) will be a member of the Interagency State Council on Black and Minority Health, the Select Joint Commission on Medicaid Oversight, the Commission on Mental Health, the Northwest Indiana Transportation Study Commission and the Health Finance Commission.
